Practicing Our Faith

Sharing our Prayers, Presence, Gifts, Service & Witness

Welcome to the Arnold Mills United Methodist Church. Whether it’s your first time or you have worn a groove in “your” pew, we are glad you are here. We hope you connect with God and our community as we follow Jesus, love our neighbors, and change the world. Children are welcome to participate fully in worship including communion. Their wiggles, giggles, singing and yes, even their crying remind us we are all growing. Children will begin Sunday School in the sanctuary and then follow their teachers to their classroom following Children’s Time, a time when the pastor and children learn together.

PRAYERS

Holding our neighbors, community and world in God’s love

SERVICE

Love In Action

Support local educators and students: Local Educators do not have adequate resources for the students in their classrooms. Most teachers provide many of those items at their own expense! You can help students and teachers. Donate items in the bin on the elevator or in the hallway near the display case. Suggested items for classroom support:

- pencils
- computer paper
- glue (sticks and bottles)
- poster boards
- folders and notebooks (any subject, any type)
- large chart paper
- small laptop headphones with auxiliary cords

WITNESS

Working for Justice in our community, state and nation

Special Church Conference, Today Sunday, April 28, immediately following worship. We will officially vote to become a Reconciling Ministry of the United Methodist Church.

General Conference Ends May 3 — There are three priorities for US Delegates

Worldwide Regionalization, The proposal would create eight distinct regional governing bodies in what are currently the seven central conferences in Africa, Europe, the Philippines as well as in the United States. Each region would have the same authority to adapt portions of the Book of Discipline, the denomination's policy book, to their missional context.

Revised Social Principles, The proposals are the result of an eight-year revision process prompted by the 2012 General Conference to make the denomination's social teachings more "more globally relevant, theologically founded and succinct." More than 4,000 United Methodists from around the globe have contributed to the revisions. As proposed, the revision would no longer make reference to homosexuality at all.

Removal of exclusionary policies against LGBTQ people. Since General Conference added the Social Principle on homosexuality in 1972, subsequent gatherings have added bans on "self-avowed practicing" gay clergy and the officiation of same-sex weddings. Also since 1972, every General Conference has been marked by rancorous debate over the place of LGBTQ people in church life. The clashes culminated in the special 2019 General Conference, which passed the Traditional Plan that aimed to strengthen enforcement of the bans and opened the door for the church disaffiliations seen over the past four years. "This would return the Book of Discipline to where it was from 1784 to 1972, and remove the cause of so much of our friction and division for the last 50 years," said the Rev. Adam Hamilton, one of the delegate signers from the Great Plains Conference. He is the senior pastor of Resurrection, a multisite United Methodist church based in Leawood, Kansas, that has long seen the denomination's highest weekly attendance in the U.S.
